LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Now is the time to enroll!
—T. E. Alexander sells Rock Hill buggies. Walhalla, S. C. Adv.-11.
—A full meeting of Oconee Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., is requested for next Tuesday night. Work in first and second degrees.

—O. M. Mitchell, of Atlanta, spent Sunday in Walhalla among friends, making numerous acquaintances, who will be glad to welcome him back in the future.

—We are indebted to our friend Chas. W. Burnside for a box of fine apples and peaches. Charlie always remembers us. If he does not give us fruit we know that his trees are not bearing that year.

—W. M. Brown is selling buggies, wagons and harness cheaper than any body. See advertisement for prices.—Adv.

—The members of Walhalla Lodge, No. 67, K. of P., are urged to attend the meeting next Monday night. Besides important business matters to receive attention there will be "fresh meat." Nuff sed.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Pitchford and little daughter, Miss Lillian, left last Monday for Saluda, S. C., where they will spend the week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mickler. They drove through the country in their Ford car.

—All delegates to the Beaverdam Baptist Association, which meets in Walhalla August 4th, who wish entertainment, will kindly send their names, as soon as convenient, to W. M. Brown. This request is made in order that we may prepare to assign delegates.

—We can save you money on building material—roofings, metal shingles, sash and doors, lime and cement. Matheson Hardware Co., Westminster, S. C.—Adv. 31

—The union services were well attended last Sunday night, when Rev. J. B. Umberger, of the Lutheran church, conducted services and preached the sermon at the Presbyterian church. On next Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock Rev. G. M. Wilcox, of the Presbyterian church, will conduct the union service and preach at the Methodist church. The public is cordially invited to attend and take part in the services.

—On last Thursday afternoon J. L. Hudson, who lives in the Chochee section of the county, lost two good mules by lightning. The bolt came from clouds that gathered quickly. Two mules were in a stall together in the stable and both were killed instantly. Two colts occupying a stall across the hallway in the barn were unharmed. No other damage was done. Fortunately the forage and feedstuffs kept on hand by Mr. Hudson were stored in another building. His loss is somewhere about $300.

—For Sale—One donkey; full grown; weight about 375 pounds; with neat buggy and harness to match; price $30, complete. For delivery to buyer by August 1st. Call at Mrs. R. C. Strother's residence, West Union, S. C. 30*

—A marriage that came as a pleasant surprise to many of the friends of the bride in Walhalla was consummated on Tuesday morning of last week at 11:30 o'clock, at the Walhalla Methodist church, when Miss Joyce Beatty, of Walhalla, and James Angel, of Greenville, were happily married. Rev. Dr. J. L. Stokes performing the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. The bride is pleasantly known here, where she has a host of friends. She is a daughter of Mrs. C. W. Beatty, who lives near town, and is a young woman of many personal charms and fine traits of character. Mr. Angel is a young business man of Greenville, where he holds a responsible position with the Greenville branch of Swift & Co. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a trip to Atlanta and other points. We join with others in extending congratulations and good wishes.

—One car (50,000) tin cans, with solder hemmed caps, wire solder, soldering flux, cupping steels, etc. Matheson Hardware Co., Westminster, S. C.—Adv. 31

CALL FOR BIDS.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Commissioners of Public Works of Walhalla, S. C., until 12 o'clock noon, August 12th, 1914, for furnishing all material and constructing a Pole Line Distribution System in and for the Town of Walhalla, South Carolina.

Plans and specifications may be seen at office of Town Clerk or the engineers—The J. B. McCrary Co., Engineers, 1408-28 Third National Bank Building, Atlanta, Ga.

Satisfactory bond will be required of the successful bidder. Right reserved to reject any or all bids.

G. A. NORMAN, Chairman, Commissioners of Public Works, Walhalla, S. C.
July 22, 1914. 29-31

When a Woman Pays By Check

she never has any trouble in accounting for her money. For even if she forgets to enter the details in the stub of her check book, the check itself comes back and is at once a record of payment and a receipt for the money.

The Bank of Walhalla invites accounts with women. Every attention and courtesy will be paid them. All information cheerfully given.

Bank of Walhalla,
WALHALLA, S. C.

—Put your name on the club roll before next Tuesday, the 28th.

—Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, on Wednesday, July 15, a son.

—For Sale—Lot of good corn in the shuck. J. B. S. Dendy, Walhalla. Adv.-31

—Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Bell, who live near Walhalla, on Tuesday, July 14th, a son.

—Miss Harriet Verner, of Retreat, is visiting at the home of her brother, W. L. Verner. She will spend the summer here.

—Miss Mabel Verner, of Martin, Ga., is spending a week at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Verner.

—Read W. M. Brown's new advertisement. He is offering buggies at extremely low prices in order to move them quickly. Call and see his stock.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Collins, who have been spending some time in West Union, have moved to Toccoa, Ga., where they will reside for the present.

—Buy your buggies and harness from W. M. Brown, Walhalla, and save from $10 to $25 on each vehicle. Lap robes and whips.—Adv.

—Miss Marie Theilkohl, of Charleston, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Theilkohl, and among her numerous friends in Walhalla. She expects to return to Charleston the latter part of this week.

—The members of the Pythian lodges of Oconee have arranged for holding a picnic at Richland on Thursday, August 13th, at which time it is earnestly desired that every Pythian in the county will attend, taking with him his family. It is hoped to make this a real Pythian rallying, at which every Pythian in the county will be present and receive inspiration. It is expected that the Grand Chancellor will be present, as will also others of the grand officers. All Pythians are urged to bear this date in mind and make arrangements to be present.

—The Courier last Saturday received a handsome present from W. E. Smith, of Keowee River section, who presented us with a basket of fine apples and peaches. His "Stribling July" apples are especially fine. Mr. Smith came to The Courier office especially to bring this present, making the gift doubly appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are rejoicing over the recent visit to them of their daughter, Mrs. Janie Miller Grant, of Oakway, who was accompanied by her little daughter, the only grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Grant returned to her home last week.

—Pleasant and profitable employment for women, girls and boys. Apply to Hetrick Hosiery Mills, Walhalla, S. C. t. f.-adv.

—State Superintendent of Education J. E. Swearingen was in Walhalla for a short while last week, coming up for the purpose of attending the closing of the Oconee Teachers' Summer School, before which body he delivered a splendid address on Friday, speaking also Thursday night to a body of citizens at the auditorium. At the closing of the summer school there was a goodly number of school trustees from over the county, and the State Superintendent's address was delivered jointly to the trustees and teachers. The school as a body rendered a short program, consisting of songs and recitations, with a demonstration of primary methods by Miss Stribling, and these were followed by the State Superintendent's address and talks by others present from a distance and citizens of the county and community. Preliminary steps were taken for the organization of associations—county organizations—of trustees and teachers, each body to be separate, but both looking to educational advancement.

—Frank E. Harrison, Jr., of Charleston, arrived in Walhalla yesterday and will spend two weeks here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harrison. His many Walhalla friends are pleased to meet him again.

—Miss Julia Maxwell returned last week from an extended visit to relatives in Charleston and Greenville. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Willie Mae Nix, of Greenville, who will spend some time here.

—Little Misses Louella and Grace Adams and Ollie Mae Gilbert, of Toccoa, Ga., are spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Davis. The two former children are nieces of Mrs. Davis, while the latter is a grand-niece.

—The contract for the erection of the new Presbyterian church in Walhalla has been let to H. C. Busch. We understand that work will be begun at an early date. The contract price for the completed work is something slightly less than $10,000.

—Cider mills and fruit presses at Matheson Hardware Co., Westminster, S. C.—Adv. 31

—Thos. J. Hunter, of Columbia, spent last week in West Union visiting his brother, G. Jack Hunter, and family, and among his many old friends here. Tom is now connected with the fire department in the Capital City, and has been for several years.

—Mr. and Mrs. John B. Bonner, of Pelzer, arrived in Walhalla last week and will spend several weeks here. They are boarding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Busch. Mr. and Mrs. Bonner have many friends in Walhalla who are always pleased to welcome them on their annual visits.

—There are many friends of Mrs. Alice Conley in the county who will be pleased to hear from her. She is now located at Oregon City, Oregon, and will remain there at least during the present year. Mrs. Conley is enjoying the West greatly and reports ideal weather there. In spite of this fact, however, she is looking forward eagerly to her return to Oconee.

—Highest prices paid for chickens and eggs. W. A. Peehuff, at Walhalla Cotton Mill. Adv.

—Prof. and Mrs. L. A. Sease returned to their home at Clemson College last Saturday after having spent a month in Walhalla, during which time Prof. Sease was at the head of the Summer School for Teachers. Prof. and Mrs. Sease and family will soon leave Clemson for Newberry county, where they will spend the remainder of the vacation period among relatives.

—Mrs. John W. Wickliffe, of West Union, left last week for St. Johns, N. F., where she will spend some months. She is accompanied by her four children. This is Mrs. Wickliffe's first visit to her old home in about five years, and there are many friends who will join with The Courier in extending all good wishes for a most pleasant visit and safe return.

—Reuben Phillips, who lives near the Courtenay Junction, on the Southern Railway, near Seneca, was arrested Saturday afternoon at his home on the charge of having in his possession and storing blockade contraband liquors. The arrest was made by Sheriff John W. Davis and M. M. Gaines. The officers found about seven gallons of the liquor measured out in bottles of various capacities. Phillips was taken before Magistrate J. N. Hopkins, of Seneca, and he waived preliminary hearing. He was admitted to bail for his appearance at the next term of the Court of Sessions for Oconee in the sum of $200. (We learn that Magistrate Hopkins later granted Phillips a preliminary, which will probably be held next week.)

—Just now, at the height of the building season, we want to call the particular attention of our readers to the advertising of the Cortright Metal Roofing Co., Philadelphia, Pa., which has been appearing in our columns for several months, telling of the merits of the famous Cortright metal shingle. The Cortright Company advises us that the use of these goods has grown enormously all over the country, and they can only attribute this constant growth to the splendid satisfaction the roofing is giving. We heartily recommend this company's product to any one desiring a perfectly weather-tight, fire-proof, ornamental and durable roof-covering at a moderate cost. The Ballenger Hardware and Furniture Co., of Seneca, handle these metal shingles locally and are always glad to quote prices and give any other desired information concerning them.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Steck entertained beautifully a number of friends on last Wednesday evening at a porch party, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Neville, who have recently returned from their bridal tour. The spacious veranda was illuminated with Japanese lanterns and many candles in silver candelabra, and the gentle rain dimmed neither lights nor spirits. Guests were received by the host, hostess and the honorees, served to punch by Miss Pauline Steck, and then indulged in a number of very interesting games of progressive whist. Winners of each game were given a tiny gold bell, while losers received a silver one. After six games Miss Mamie Harrison was declared the fortunate winner of the first prize, a pair of dainty silver hatpins. Jas. F. Neville winning first prize for gentlemen, a beautiful deck of cards. The consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Harry Hughes, a small silver candelabra holding six candles, and John A. Ansel, a box of confections. Mr. and Mrs. Neville were presented with initialed silver napkin markers. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Mamie Harrison and Pauline Steck. Those who enjoyed the delightful hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Steck were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Neville, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Shanklin, Mr. and Mrs. Fair Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. James Darby, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ansel, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hughes, Mrs. Lockwood, Misses Eloise Strother, Mamie Harrison, Janie Neville, Messrs. James and Mack Neville.

—Rev. Marion Stokes will preach at Bethel Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The citizens of the community are urged to attend without fail, and the public is cordially invited.

—John H. Maxwell, of Anderson, and Lucien S. Maxwell, of Johnston, are spending this week in Walhalla with their mother, Mrs. G. K. Maxwell, and among other relatives and friends, who are always pleased to welcome them to their old home.

—Mrs. H. B. Schroder returned last week from Charleston, where she had been spending a month with her son Jacob Schroder, and among other relatives. She was accompanied on her return by her sister, Mrs. Doretta Hesse, who will spend the summer here.

—At the request of Fair Play Masonic Lodge, members of Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 92, A. F. M., of Walhalla, will confer the Master Mason's degree on three candidates at Fair Play tomorrow (Thursday) night. About 20 members of the Walhalla lodge will attend.

—Mrs. Ida Darby has been suffering quite a great deal for the past week by reason of injuries received by a fall on the stairway in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Norman. Mrs. Darby is improving rapidly now, however, though still confined to her room. We hope for her early complete recovery.

—T. A. Ratliff arrived in Walhalla Saturday afternoon to join his family, who are making a visit to Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fant. Mr. Ratliff has recently been transferred from the position of traveling salesman of the Morris Fertilizer Co., of Atlanta, to that of salesmanager, which is a distinct promotion for him.

—Mail service has been inaugurated on the Blue Ridge motor cars as follows: Car arriving at 8:50 a. m. brings a through pouch from the Birmingham Special. The car leaving at 11:40 a. m. takes mail for No. 37, the Washington and Southwestern vestibule limited. This mail is closed at the post office at 11:25 a. m. Arrangements are on foot to have the afternoon motor cars handle mail also. The motor car service advances quite a bit of mail several hours in delivery.

—Just as we go to press we are in receipt of information that an examination for rural mail carrier will be held at Walhalla on Saturday, the 8th day of August. The examination is to be held to fill a vacancy at Seneca, S. C. The ages of applicants can range between 18 and 55. The usual rules governing rural mail carrier examinations govern this examination on August 8th. Parties interested should seek further information from postmasters at Walhalla and Seneca. We are informed that Route No. 5 will be established from Seneca August 5th, although this information has not been given out by post office officials.

No Loose or Broken Hub Bands on Studebaker wheels

Studebaker hub bands are made of a specially refined iron perfectly adapted for this use. Hub bands are welded by electricity and then shrunk on by hydraulic pressure.

There is not the slightest possibility of Studebaker hubs weakening from usage or from weather conditions. No strain or climate severe enough to injure them.

Studebaker Wagons

Every part—iron or wood—is made in the same careful way as the hub and banding. That's why Studebaker wagons run easier and last longer.

Come in and see the Studebaker.
